

16 Sep 2000 Dubai International Airport Voted Best Airport Middle East

Dubai International Airport has been voted as the Best Airport Middle East Award by readers of Travel Intelligence Middle East magazine. Dubai Duty Free was selected as the Best Duty Free in the Middle East. The Inaugural Travel Intelligence Middle East Millennium Travel Awards ceremony was held at Al Bustan Rotana on Wednesday 3rd May.

HH Sheikh Ahmed bin Saeed Al Maktoum, President of the Department of Civil Aviation and Chairman of Emirates, commented: "This award is a recognition of our efforts to provide a high class facility together with the highest standard of service. Since it is the end users of Dubai International Airport who have voted for us, receiving this award is a new boost to further improve ourselves and we aim to continue providing the best service and be voted as the best airport in the world."

The Travel Intelligence Middle East is a premier travel industry magazine. Readers of the magazine were asked to vote in thirteen different categories such as Best Middle East Airlines, Best Long Haul Airline, Best Airport in the Middle East, Best Duty Free in the Middle East, Best Business Hotel etc. The readers included top travel agents, tour operators and corporate companies. The votes were audited by Price WaterhouseCoopers and these awards will now be given annually.
